

IWM Observes Victory Day 2020

Institute of Water Modelling (IWM) observes National Victory Day 16 December and pays glowing tribute to the martyrs who gallantly sacrificed their lives for the country during the Liberation War in 1971, by placing wreaths at the National Memorial at Savar, maintaining the health guidelines in face of the global pandemic Covid-19.

IWM pays homages to celebrate 16 December, 2020 The Victory Day at National Monument, Savar

Victory Day this year came with an extra significance as it coincided with Father of the Nation's birth centenary celebrations, just a year ahead of the golden jubilee of independence, to be celebrated in the year of 2021.

Executive Director, IWM Mr. Abu Saleh Khan paid tributes to the martyrs of the Liberation War by placing a floral wreath at the National Memorial at Savar. He was accompanied by Deputy Executive Director (P&D) Mr. S M Mahbubur Rahman and other senior relevant officials of IWM.

To celebrate the Victory Day, IWM Bhaban was illuminated with decorative lightings with the theme of victory day, national flag and Father of the Nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman.

IWM Bhaban was illuminated with decorative lighting to celebrate the Victory Day

The national flag was hoisted at IWM Bhaban to celebrate 16 December the glorious day of our victory.

